Fiscal Detail and Notes

The bill includes a one-time allocation for an economic feasibility study for commuter and passenger train service between Portland and the Lewiston and Auburn area. Two thirds of the cost of the study must be provided by municipalities and private entities that would be directly impacted by the train service with the remaining one third provided by existing funding within this account. Other Special Revenue Funds within the Department of Transportation will increase by approximately $166,000 if commitments and remittances of funds are received from municipalities and private entities.
